

Brenda is very passionate about Christ and has over time bonded so well with her new family at OMA Foundation. She enjoys reading the Bible and sharing what she knows about God with friends. She is committed to nurturing others in the way of the Lord and wants to share daily devotions.

But life wasn't easy on her side when she was staying with the father of her two children. She was abused by the man's family and her husband wouldn't even listen to her when she told him about it. She was eventually chased away, and ended up at her mother's home.

She is currently learning a lot from OMA Foundation, where we counsel and encourage her in the Word.

She adores the Lord and has built a solid relationship with Him since 2006, after receiving salvation.

Our prayer is that she grows daily in this relationship and lives to fully serve His purpose wherever God has placed her.

Will you become a sponsor today with OMA Foundation? Your financial support, will allow us to teach Brenda tailoring skills, livelihood support, follow-up and mentorship to be a wonderful mother to her two children.
